

Examination requirements:                  In their portfolio, students should demonstrate their familiarity with key concepts and topics discussed in the lecture as well as an ability to critically discuss these topics by completing various assignments related to particular seminar contents. In addition, students will be expected to have read the background literature mentioned in the course.
Admission requirements:                  none	Recommended previous knowledge:                  Basics in microeconomics and macroeconomics, understanding of econometrics, ability to read scientific articles
Language:                  English	Person responsible for module:                  Prof. Dr. Sebastian Vollmer
Course frequency:                  each summer semester	Duration:                  1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted:                  twice	Recommended semester:                  3 - 4
Maximum number of students:                  18
Additional notes and regulations:                  * A portfolio is a collection of the following assignments related to particular seminar contents: summaries of a text, response papers, reading reports and comments on presentations (max. 15 pages).	